

FALL/WINTER 2009/2010

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

These courses provide information that will enable the participants to: 1) Discuss the epidemiology, clinical manifestations and treatment of STDs and HIV; 2) discuss the complications and connection between STD and HIV Infections; and 3) enhance their ability to obtain a good history and physical examination of patients with STDs.

3-Day STD Part-time Intensive Course (10 hours didactic, 10 hours experiential)

Target Audience: MDs, NPs, PAs, or other providers desiring and seeking a comprehensive disease focused STD update with a lab and clinical component.

This three-day onsite training is available at two North Carolina health departments:

- Guilford County Health Department – February 8-10, 2010
- Wake County Human Services – November 30 – December 2, 2009

Interested participants may register at www.stdptc.org

STD/HIV Cultural Diversity Workshop (CE credits pending)

Target Audience: Public and private providers and other disciplines involved in prevention and management of STDs and HIV.

Date: December 7, 2009

Location: Select Videoconference sites

This offering will provide didactic and interactive content regarding latino profile in North Carolina and best practices to meet the needs of the Latino communities from an STD/HIV risk perspective.

Registration information pending

<http://www.epi.state.nc.us/epi/hiv/training.html>

Two-Day STD Update (10 hours didactic)

Target Audience: Public and private providers and other disciplines involved in prevention and management of STDs and HIV.

This is a two day offering intended to update providers on pathophysiology and current management of sexually transmitted diseases.

Date: November 16-17, 2009

Location: Mountain AHEC

Date: March 18 -19, 2010

Location: Eastern AHEC

Registration information pending:

<http://www.epi.state.nc.us/epi/hiv/training.html>

FALL 2009 STD/HIV Update (4.8 contact hours)

Target Audience: Public and private providers and other disciplines involved in prevention and management of STDs and HIV.

Date: September 24, 2009

Location: Statewide Teleconference

This offering provides update on new protocols, policies, initiatives for prevention, assessment and management of STDs and HIV in North Carolina.

Registration information pending.

<http://www.epi.state.nc.us/epi/hiv/training.html>

STD Experiential Training (14 contact hours experiential training)

Target Audience: This training is strictly hands-on clinical activity and is available to STD providers desiring this experience.

North Carolina STD Expanded Role nurses in need of hands-on experience to satisfy agreement addenda practice requirements for recertification/re-rostering are required to take this course.

This training is offered at two North Carolina health departments:

- Wake County Human Services
- Guilford County Health Department

Registration information available at the following website

<http://www.epi.state.nc.us/epi/hiv/training.html>

Basic STD Enhanced Role Course (STD Nurse Clinician) (22 contact hours)

Target audience: Public Health Nurses in local health departments designated as first line provider for assessment and management of STD clients

This offering allows a six weeks online didactic which is followed by a six month preceptorship in local health departments.

Date – Fall 2009

2009/2010

STD TRAININGS

3-Day STD Part Time Intensive
November 30-December 2, 2009
Raleigh, NC
20 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM

3-Day STD Part Time Intensive
February 8-February 10, 2010
Greensboro, NC
20 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)TM

2-Day STD Experiential Training

- Greensboro, NC
- Raleigh, NC

2 day time slots flexible
14 continuing education contact hours

2-Day STD Update
November 16-17, 2009 - MAHEC
March 18-19, 2010– Eastern AHEC
Continuing education units pending

STD/HIV Cultural Diversity Workshop
Date - December 7, 2009
Location – Select Videoconference sites
Continuing education units pending

FALL 2009 STD/HIV Update
September 24, 2009
Statewide Teleconference
4.8 continuing education contact hours

Basic STD Expanded Role Course (STD Nurse Clinician)
Date – Fall 2009
22 continuing education contact hours

AL / NC STD/HIV Prevention Training Center
1200 Front St., Ste 104
Raleigh, NC 27609

ALABAMA - NORTH CAROLINA
STD HIV
PREVENTION TRAINING CENTER
www.stdptc.org

NORTH CAROLINA STDPTC COURSE

FALL/WINTER 2009

Jointly-Sponsored By:

UAB Division of Infectious Diseases,
Birmingham, AL

AL-NC STD/HIV Prevention Training
Center, Birmingham, AL

UAB AATEC/SEATEC. Birmingham, AL
Jefferson County Department of Health,
Birmingham, AL

The University of North Carolina at Chapel
Hill, Chapel Hill, NC

Wake Forest University Health Sciences
Winston Salem, NC

North Carolina Department of Health and
Human Services, Division of Public Health
Raleigh, NC